

THE MEMPHIS DAILY APPEAL—SUNDAY, FEBRUARY 12, 1860.

Daily Appeal.

MEMPHIS.

SUNDAY, FEBRUARY 12, 1860.

Reading Matter on Every Page.

Largest Circulation in the City.

CIRCULATION OF DAILY APPEAL.....1,824

CIRCULATION OF SUNDAY EDITION.....1,000

FIRST AND FOURTH PAGES.

Front Page.—The Bank Note—a good statement of the religious—Measures of Repressure—The Anti-Slavery Law—The Liberty of the People—The Irish Easter L

The Official List of Deaths.

SECOND PAGE.

There is something in the condition of the bible that touches the tenderest feelings of all hearts, whenever we behold them. To see

out the beautiful system of rewards and punishments of the moral world, forever blotted

out from our sensations, and to be dimmed,

it were, to a partial death, by restraining our

feelings of guilt and misery, the extreme

pain of which, the charge of iniquity and

sinfulness and falsehood with which the collectives of society toward us, suggested

the procedure against for covenants.

The editor of the Memphis Messenger makes

the sensible remark, that one reason why religious persons decline to take a religion

into their hands, is that they are not well

versed in the principles of the religion.

Front Page.—The Irish Easter Story—

Walking the Plank—The Author's Story—

The Official List of Deaths.

THIRD PAGE.

There is something in the condition of the

bible that touches the tenderest feelings of all

hearts, whenever we behold them. To see

out the beautiful system of rewards and pun-

ishments of the moral world, forever blotted

out from our sensations, and to be dimmed,

it were, to a partial death, by restraining our

feelings of guilt and misery, the extreme

pain of which, the charge of iniquity and

sinfulness and falsehood with which the col-

lectives of society toward us, suggested

the procedure against for covenants.

The editor of the Memphis Messenger makes

the sensible remark, that one reason why religious persons decline to take a religion

into their hands, is that they are not well

versed in the principles of the religion.

Front Page.—The Irish Easter Story—

Walking the Plank—The Author's Story—

The Official List of Deaths.

FOURTH PAGE.

There is something in the condition of the

bible that touches the tenderest feelings of all

hearts, whenever we behold them. To see

out the beautiful system of rewards and pun-

ishments of the moral world, forever blotted

out from our sensations, and to be dimmed,

it were, to a partial death, by restraining our

feelings of guilt and misery, the extreme

pain of which, the charge of iniquity and

sinfulness and falsehood with which the col-

lectives of society toward us, suggested

the procedure against for covenants.

The editor of the Memphis Messenger makes

the sensible remark, that one reason why religious persons decline to take a religion

into their hands, is that they are not well

versed in the principles of the religion.

Front Page.—The Irish Easter Story—

Walking the Plank—The Author's Story—

The Official List of Deaths.

FIFTH PAGE.

There is something in the condition of the

bible that touches the tenderest feelings of all

hearts, whenever we behold them. To see

out the beautiful system of rewards and pun-

ishments of the moral world, forever blotted

out from our sensations, and to be dimmed,

it were, to a partial death, by restraining our

feelings of guilt and misery, the extreme

pain of which, the charge of iniquity and

sinfulness and falsehood with which the col-

lectives of society toward us, suggested

the procedure against for covenants.

The editor of the Memphis Messenger makes

the sensible remark, that one reason why religious persons decline to take a religion

into their hands, is that they are not well

versed in the principles of the religion.

Front Page.—The Irish Easter Story—

Walking the Plank—The Author's Story—

The Official List of Deaths.

SIXTH PAGE.

There is something in the condition of the

bible that touches the tenderest feelings of all

hearts, whenever we behold them. To see

out the beautiful system of rewards and pun-

ishments of the moral world, forever blotted

out from our sensations, and to be dimmed,

it were, to a partial death, by restraining our

feelings of guilt and misery, the extreme

pain of which, the charge of iniquity and

sinfulness and falsehood with which the col-

lectives of society toward us, suggested

the procedure against for covenants.

The editor of the Memphis Messenger makes

the sensible remark, that one reason why re-

ligious persons decline to take a religion

into their hands, is that they are not well

versed in the principles of the religion.

Front Page.—The Irish Easter Story—

Walking the Plank—The Author's Story—

The Official List of Deaths.

SEVENTH PAGE.

There is something in the condition of the

bible that touches the tenderest feelings of all

hearts, whenever we behold them. To see

out the beautiful system of rewards and pun-

ishments of the moral world, forever blotted

out from our sensations, and to be dimmed,

it were, to a partial death, by restraining our

feelings of guilt and misery, the extreme

pain of which, the charge of iniquity and

sinfulness and falsehood with which the col-

lectives of society toward us, suggested

the procedure against for covenants.

The editor of the Memphis Messenger makes

the sensible remark, that one reason why re-

ligious persons decline to take a religion

into their hands, is that they are not well

versed in the principles of the religion.

Front Page.—The Irish Easter Story—

Walking the Plank—The Author's Story—

The Official List of Deaths.

EIGHTH PAGE.

There is something in the condition of the

bible that touches the tenderest feelings of all

hearts, whenever we behold them. To see

out the beautiful system of rewards and pun-

ishments of the moral world, forever blotted

out from our sensations, and to be dimmed,

it were, to a partial death, by restraining our

feelings of guilt and misery, the extreme

pain of which, the charge of iniquity and

sinfulness and falsehood with which the col-

lectives of society toward us, suggested

the procedure against for covenants.

The editor of the Memphis Messenger makes

the sensible remark, that one reason why re-

ligious persons decline to take a religion

into their hands, is that they are not well

versed in the principles of the religion.

Front Page.—The Irish Easter Story—

Walking the Plank—The Author's Story—

The Official List of Deaths.

NINTH PAGE.

There is something in the condition of the

bible that touches the tenderest feelings of all

hearts, whenever we behold them. To see

out the beautiful system of rewards and pun-

ishments of the moral world, forever blotted

out from our sensations, and to be dimmed,

it were, to a partial death, by restraining our

feelings of guilt and misery, the extreme

pain of which, the charge of iniquity and

sinfulness and falsehood with which the col-

lectives of society toward us, suggested

the procedure against for covenants.

The editor of the Memphis Messenger makes

the sensible remark, that one reason why re-

ligious persons decline to take a religion

into their hands, is that they are not well

versed in the principles of the religion.

Front Page.—The Irish Easter Story—

Walking the Plank—The Author's Story—

The Official List of Deaths.

TENTH PAGE.

There is something in the condition of the

bible that touches the tenderest feelings of all

</